Evaluation Update from the CWRC

Data collection for the EBP sub-study and Family Engagement Study continues. Please keep in mind that the EBP referral and dosage spreadsheet is due on January 9th. If you have any questions about the EBP data collection process, please reach out to our EBP Evaluation Coordinator, Jenna Meister (jem275@pitt.edu). Additionally, for all questions regarding the FES data collection process, please reach out to our Evaluation Specialist, Alexis Pigott (alp159@pitt.edu).

As we wrap up the calendar year, the SPANS and family engagement conference observations continue to be completed in all counties. A big thank you goes out to those counties that have assisted us in completing all SPANS and conference observations to date. Thank you!

Stay tuned for information related to the next Flash Talk! The Evaluation Team is working hard to plan the next topic and report. If you have questions regarding the evaluation activities or the Flash Talk Series, please contact Evaluation Coordinator, Justin Donofrio (jdd63@pitt.edu).

Happy Holidays!

Thanks to all who have dedicated their time and effort to the Child Welfare Demonstration Project over the past year. Let's all work toward a successful and productive 2017!
