Implications of Many Age Groups

Older Workers

- Greater concern for retirement security and planning, health care and wellness, different rewards.
- Loss of reward systems which reflected greater economic stability—e.g., medical benefits after retirement, time off for education.

Affirmative Action is..

- a commitment made by an employer to take positive steps to end discrimination in the workplace;
- good faith actions the employer makes to recruit, hire, and promote qualified individuals; and
- goal setting based on the composition of the labor market, timetables and numeric goals for the hiring and promotion.

University of Pittsburgh SCHOOL OF Social Work Empower People Lead Organizations Grow Communities

Equal Opportunity Employment (continued)

- Protects job applicants or employees, based on their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or veteran status related to any manner that would deprive them of employment or adversely affect their status as employees.
- In 1998, Executive Order 13087 was signed that prohibits discrimination based on sexual orientation.

Marking Time (Temporality)

When is the right time? People of different cultural backgrounds may give different answers to this question:

- ▶ At ten o'clock;
- ▶ At twenty-two hundred hours;
- ▶ At sunset;
- ▶ When everything is ready;
- ▶ When everyone is here; or
- ▶ When I'm good and ready.
